OUR FOUNDER

SHRI R.N. GULATI
The Founder Director
(1913-1977)

Shri R.N. Gulati was born on 27th December 1913 in a small village located on the border of the undivided India and Afghanistan.

With an excellent academic record he joined the North West Frontier Police of the British Govt. and was appreciated by the Governor of the Province for his gallantry services.

Looking for more challenges he joined the Indian army as a lieutenant and opted for Artillery branch. A veteran of World war 2nd, he saw action in Egypt and other African countries. He was also awarded the Defence Medal, Certificate of merit for his gallantry services by King George IV.

Seeing the human suffering in the war, he branched off to the Indian External Service to serve the tribal of North East India with a missionary zeal.

Life was difficult but since he had the cause upper most in his mind, he continued to work for the upliftment of the tribals. After completing his tenure, fate brought him to this holy city-Varanasi.

His idea to educate the young in a different manner, gave shape to this 'Little Flower House' which was meant to be more of a home than a school for children.

A child among Children, his sense of humour further endeared him to the children who lovingly called him "UNCLE".

Even though he is not amidst us, but his ideals and visions are still alive which we are duty bound to follow and make his dream a reality.

FOR THE CAUSE THAT LACKS ASSISTANCE
FOR THE WRONG, THAT NEEDS RESISTANCE
FOR THE FUTURE IN THE DISTANCE,
AND THE GOOD THAT I CAN DO, WHAT I LIVE FOR.

LT. SMT. RAJ GULATI
The Founder Director
(1917-2002)

A soul dedicated to the cause of education and social welfare, a heart that beat for the downtrodden, a mind devoted to the cause of upliftment of the education, an ingenious in modern techniques of education, such was the psyche of our founder SMT. RAJ GULATI, whom everyone respectfully called "MATA JEE". AN INSTITUTION BY HERSELF, she initiated methods and practices in the field of education that will remain relevant for times to come.

Born on May 19, 1917, in a well to do family, with her father being a senior civil servant in the British Raj, she was educated in a good school in the erstwhile State of Western Punjab, now in Pakistan. Her upbringing was such that she grew to be a lady with a heart and mind.

In those days when the girls largely remained without education, she completed her college by doing a post-graduation in History and Political science. As her interest remained largely in education, she did her L.T. and joined the D.A.V. College, Lahore as a lecturer. Due to her devotion and sincerity, she was promoted as the Principal. After the partition of India she came to India, where she married an army officer Major R.N.Gulati who fully supported her ideals.

Even during the army tenure she was devoted to the upliftment of the families of jawans and her appreciable work made her win a lot of laurels.

Fate brought her to Varanasi, where her burning desire to bring about reforms in the field of education which was in a very inert form, gave birth to this institution which has since become the garden of education which everyone would treasure.

Her devotion and dedication has made "Little Flower House" today a towering entity in the field of modern education.

Although she left us on 28th October 2002, she is still guiding us today and we are duty bound to take this institution to new heights to fulfil her desire for working incessantly towards the development of the society.

Dear Parents,

Thanks for evincing interest in our society which is engaged for the last 54 years in the field of education making a mark in providing futuristic education yet maintaining and preserving our rich culture and heritage.

Henry Adams, a leading author and educationist of the 21st century stated that " Nothing in education is so astonishing as the amount of ignorance it accumulates in the form of inert facts and we all realize it is not the brain alone but the character, the heart, the generous qualities, the progressive idea, which have all to be packaged together to enable the child to bloom into a flowering personality. For this, we at L.F.H. are continuously engaged in redefining and re-inventing schooling.

We look forward of having you with us and would enjoy seeing you get the competitive edge to reach the high pinnacles of life.

My advice - Get the flower power - it will make all the difference

Thanking you

Sincerely,

Dr. Deepika Bajaj

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

FROM DIRECTOR'S DESK

NALIN GULATI
Director

The core of any good school is the faculty. Good teachers do many things which are not quantifiable. Having high standards, pursuing excellence, exhibiting concern for each child and maintaining the level of students' engagement are the goals of first rate faculty. The members of our institution i.e., the teachers are specially trained and geared up to take up the responsibility, through workshops and seminars.

In addition to exceptional teachers what makes LFH truly special, is our focus on the development of the whole person. We require the students to participate in all areas of school life engaging the mind, body and spirit. Academically the students study all subjects but special emphasis is given on English, Maths and Science, along with a heavy dose of writing and public speaking.

The moral development of the students is also a chief concern. Each year our students are exposed to program that address such topic as decision making and accountability. The school motto "LET LIGHT COME TO US FROM EVERY SIDE" reflects the quality and enlightenment we seek to develop in our student. Our expectation is that each student will give his best and great emphasis is laid on good manners, diligence, respect, self-discipline, integrity and impassion. Little Flower House is truly a unique school. While proud and protective of its traditions, is well positioned to embrace the challenges of the 21st century. I invite you to read on and learn more about LITTLE FLOWER HOUSE.
