FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

A Month of Culture, Courage and Character

Dear Parents, Students and Members of the Little Flower House Family,

October reminded us once again that education at Little Flower House goes far beyond the four walls of a classroom. On our Nagwa stage, our youngest learners from all five branches brought the Ramayana to life, reminding every one of us of the timeless values of truth, respect, courage and devotion. A few days later, our students performed with grace and confidence at the BHU Durga Puja Pandal, carrying the name of our school to a much larger audience.

On the sports field and in competition halls, our children showed the same spirit. Our Kho-Kho and Kabaddi teams won first position at the Kashi Sansad Khel-Kood Pratiyogita and have qualified for the district level, our basketball players brought home first prize from Lucknow, and our singers, dancers, actors and young mathematicians earned recognition at inter-school events across the city.

Every one of these moments is the result of quiet, consistent effort by our students, the dedication of our teachers and the unwavering support of our parents. I thank each one of you. Let us continue to nurture curiosity, discipline and kindness in our children, so that they grow into confident and responsible citizens.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Nalin Gulati

Director, Little Flower House Senior Secondary School (Affiliated to C.B.S.E-New Delhi)

FESTIVE GREETINGS

CULTURE & HERITAGE

Ramayana Comes Alive on the Nagwa Stage

15 October 2026 | Little Flower House, Nagwa | Pre-Primary · Classes I & II

The Nagwa campus was filled with joy, devotion and colour as our youngest learners from the Pre-Primary sections and Classes I & II of all five branches came together for an Inter-Branch programme based on the timeless epic, the Ramayana.

Dressed in vibrant traditional costumes, the little performers brought the characters and episodes of the epic to life through narration, dance, music and drama. Their performances carried the epic's lasting messages of truth, love, devotion, courage and respect, and the victory of good over evil. Parents, grandparents and guests filled the audience to cheer them on.

Moments from the Inter-Branch Ramayana programme – musical renditions, enactments and a packed audience.

> Learning through activities: every costume, dialogue and song helped our children connect with the values of our cultural heritage.
